

Southern Association of Colleges and Schools
Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC)
<http://www.sacscoc.org>

Disclosure Statement Regarding the Status of GEORGETOWN COLLEGE
Georgetown, Kentucky
Issued June 23, 2017, by SACSCOC

The following publicly available information is provided by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) concerning the accreditation of Georgetown College. Information presented below is in accord with SACSCOC's disclosure policy; staff of the Commission cannot comment further on questions specifically related to Georgetown College. The institution has reviewed this statement prior to public posting.

Action by SACSCOC's Board of Trustees took place on June 15, 2017, and the institution's next review is June 2018.

What is the accreditation status of Georgetown College? Georgetown College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges; however, the institution was continued in accreditation for good cause and continued on Probation for twelve months following review of (1) a Fourth Monitoring Report that originated from unsolicited information regarding the institution's financial status and (2) a Special Committee Report. The Monitoring Report included financial statements. Prior to the institution's next review by SACSCOC's Board of Trustees in June 2018, a Special Committee will conduct an on-site evaluation of its compliance with the Principles of Accreditation—the accreditation standards of the Commission. SACSCOC's accreditation includes all components of the institution—all programs, branch campuses, off-campus sites, and distance learning programs as reported to SACSCOC; thus, the Probation status applies to the entire institution.

What does it mean to be continued in accreditation for good cause and continued on Probation? When an institution has exhausted its two-year monitoring period for complying with SACSCOC's Principles of Accreditation, instead of removing the institution's accreditation, SACSCOC's Board of Trustees can extend accreditation for good cause if (1) the institution has demonstrated significant recent accomplishments in addressing non-compliance, and (2) the institution has provided evidence which makes it reasonable for the Board to assume it will remedy all deficiencies within a 12-month period, and (3) the institution has provided assurance to the Board that it is not aware of any other reasons, other than those identified by the Board, why the institution cannot be continued for good cause. An institution must be placed on Probation when it is continued in membership for good cause beyond the maximum two-year monitoring period. Probation is the most serious public sanction imposed by SACSCOC's Board of Trustees short of loss of accreditation. The maximum consecutive time that an institution may be on Probation is two years. In June 2018, Georgetown College will have been on Probation for two years and will have exhausted its monitoring period. For additional information about sanctions, refer to SACSCOC's policy entitled "Sanctions, Denial of Reaffirmation, and Removal from Membership" that can be accessed at <http://www.sacscoc.org/policies.asp>.

Why was Georgetown College continued in accreditation for good cause and continued on Probation? Georgetown College was continued in accreditation for good cause and continued on Probation because SACSCOC's Board of Trustees determined that the institution had failed to demonstrate compliance with Core Requirement 2.11.1 (Financial resources and stability) and Comprehensive Standard 3.10.1 (Financial stability) of the Principles of Accreditation. These standards expect an institution to provide evidence that it (1) has a sound financial base and resources and (2) demonstrates financial stability. (To read full statements for the standards cited above, access the Principles of Accreditation at <http://www.sacscoc.org/principles.asp>.)

What will happen in June 2018? SACSCOC's Board of Trustees will consider the accreditation status of Georgetown College following review of a Fifth Monitoring Report submitted by the institution addressing the standards cited above for non-compliance, and the report of a Special Committee that will visit the institution in spring 2018. The Board will have the following options: (1) remove the institution from Probation without an additional report or (2) remove the institution from membership for failure to comply with the Principles of Accreditation. Commission staff will not speculate on what decision might be made by SACSCOC's Board of Trustees in June 2018.

For additional information regarding SACSCOC's accreditation process, access the Principles of Accreditation (<http://www.sacscoc.org/principles.asp>).