The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), a regional accrediting commission, is a voluntary association of degree-granting institutions located in the southeastern region of the United States that elect to engage in a self-regulatory process of quality assurance. That process expects accredited members to comply with standards in the areas of mission, institutional effectiveness and student learning, governance, curriculum and educational programs, faculty, academic and student support, and financial and physical resources, and to comply with the policies of SACSCOC. The Principles of Accreditation, SACSCOC standards for accreditation, focuses on student learning and the institution's capacity and resources to fulfill its missions.
